

Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1935

We had a grand day Sunday at Lake Louise. Climbed up to the Little Beehive. Its above the Lake you & I walked to, and you can see three Lakes at once. The Larches are all turned a lovely orangy yellow and the day was perfect. warm as summer, and the sun so strong you can only sit in it a short time - Indian Summer is perfect here. It lasts about a week, but you never Tuesday, Oct. 1, 1935 - We had a grand day Sunday at Lake Louise. Climbed up to the Little Beehive. Its above the Lake you & I walked to and you can see three Lakes at once. The Larches are all turned a lovely orangy yellow and the day was perfect.

Saturday, Dec 12th. Went to school & finished my lead. It came out quite well but it is rather a difficult one to do & I didn't get it quite right in most places even one else always seems to much better. My number 70. Went up to Mrs Morgan about my costume & we were all delayed getting out to Concord & finally arrived there after five.